TOPRA AWARDS FOR REGULATORY AFFAIRS

THE REGULATORY AFFAIRS AWARDS CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE

Announcement

After a wonderful response to the call for nominations and some rigorous examination by our eminent judging panel, TOPRA is delighted to announce the names of those who have been shortlisted for these prestigious Awards. We aimed for a shortlist of three in each category, but in some cases the sheer number of entries and the high marks achieved warranted expansion of the list.

INNOVATION

Probably the best-supported category in this year's awards, nominations for Innovation were received for a truly diverse range of areas of regulatory endeavour, including publishing, manufacturing, electronic document management, patient information testing and regulatory consulting services. The short list is (in no particular order):

Leeds University
Farenta Oy, Finland
Pfizer Packaging Re-design
Samarind RMS On Demand
PPD Result Development

HORIZON

Celebrating the brightest and best of today's young regulatory professionals, this award attracted nominations from consulting companies, OTC and ethical pharmaceutical companies. We'd like to give awards to them all for their ambition and commitment to their work, but the judges have decided the short list (in no particular order) will be:

Edgar Harvat, Procter and Gamble
Samantha Lawson, Procter and Gamble
Sakshi Chhabra, Pfizer

SUPPORT

Regulatory and full-service consultancy teams are a valuable source of support to many in-house departments and deserve to be part of the TOPRA Awards. From a range of excellent nominations, the following have been shortlisted (in no particular order):

Octagon Research Services
DLRC
RRG Consultancy team
Pharmalink Consulting

INSPIRATION

From another popular category, attracting some nominations with genuinely inspiring stories of regulatory professionals who have shown the very best leadership qualities, the short list (in no particular order) is:

Ivan Fisher, Pharmalink
Linda Woods, UKR Regulatory Affairs
Jonathan Trethowan, TRAC Services
Michelle Gafa, Actavis, Malta

ACHIEVEMENT

Five excellent and deserving nominations were shortlisted for this category to celebrate a lifetime of achievement in regulatory affairs. Only one can be chosen by our judges and the winner will be announced at the Awards ceremony.

Sponsorship opportunities are still available; contact alanw@topra.org for more information.
