

Regulatory Resources Group (RRG) – 20 years on

1990 can be remembered as the year:

- Margaret Thatcher resigned as British Prime Minister.
- French and British workers joined up under the sea in the latest link to Europe's transport network - The Channel Tunnel.
- Nelson Mandela was released after 26 years in jail.
- East and West Germany were re-united, after 45 years of division.
- And the year that the regulatory affairs consultancy RRG was established!

In June RRG celebrated 20 years of successful trading.

As an overview, over the past 20 years, RRG have (approx):

- Worked on 570 different products and over 4000 regulatory projects.
- Submitted Clinical Trial Applications/Marketing Authorisation Applications in 30 European Countries as well as in the US, Canada and Asia.
- Accumulated over 200 years of regulatory experience, in our core internal team of 10 people.
- Attended over 100 meetings with the Health Authorities on behalf of our clients.
- Trained over 1000 professionals in regulatory affairs and have helped to foster internal relationships between different disciplines in global and medium sized pharmaceutical companies at many different sites around the world.

To what do RRG attribute their success?

Tacye Connolly, Director of RRG, says that 'it is about continuity, commitment, collaboration and the very high quality of service that each member of our team guarantees our clients that has sustained us and allowed us to grow the business over the past 20 years. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our loyal clients through the years for their commitment to us'.
