Following such termination, the Voting Member Student Member, Honorary Member or Honorary Fellow shall be removed from the Register of Members.

21.6 The notice to the Voting Member, Student Member, Honorary Member or Honorary Fellow pursuant to article 21.5 must give the Voting Member, Student Member, Honorary Member or Honorary Fellow the opportunity to be heard in writing or in person as to why their Membership should not be terminated. The Board Directors must consider any representations made by the Voting Member, Student Member, Honorary Member or Honorary Fellow and inform them of their decision following such consideration. There shall be no right to appeal from a decision of the Board Directors to terminate the Membership of a Voting Member, Student Member, Honorary Member or Honorary Fellow.

21.7 A Voting Member, Student Member, Honorary Member or Honorary Fellow whose Membership is terminated under this article shall not be entitled to a refund of any subscription or Membership fee and shall remain liable to pay to the Company any subscription or other sum owed by him.

22. GENERAL MEETINGS AND RESOLUTIONS

22.1 The Board may call general meetings and, on the requisition of Voting Members pursuant to the provisions of the Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Act. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Board Directors to call a general meeting, and Board Director or any Voting Member may call a general meeting.

22.2 The Company shall hold at least one general meeting in each calendar year, which shall be the “Annual Review”. The business of the Annual Review shall be the presentation of the Company’s financial results for the previous financial year, the presentation of any new Board Directors and any other business as the Board shall determine.

22.3 All general meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days’ notice. A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Voting Members having a right to attend and vote and being a majority together holding not less than ninety per cent of the total voting rights.
22.4 The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and, in the case of an Annual Review, shall specify the meeting as such.

22.5 The notice shall be given to all the Voting Members, Student Members, Honorary Members and Honorary Fellows and to the Board Directors and auditors.

22.6 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

22.7 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Twenty Voting Members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum provided that if there are fewer than twenty Voting Members, all Voting Members of the Company shall form a quorum.

22.8 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for a general meeting the general meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Board Directors present may determine.

22.9 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting then the Voting Members present shall constitute a quorum.

22.10 The President or in their absence some other Board Director nominated by the Board Directors shall preside as chair of the meeting.

22.11 The chair of the meeting may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days’ notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

22.12 When a meeting is adjourned indefinitely, the time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the Board. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting. Except where these Articles otherwise require, it shall not be necessary to give notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting.

DECISION MAKING BY VOTING MEMBERS
23. VOTES OF VOTING MEMBERS

23.1 Subject to the Act, at any general meeting:

23.1.1 every Voting Member who is present in person (or by proxy) shall on a show of hands have one vote; and

23.1.2 every Voting Member present in person (or by proxy) shall on a poll have one vote.

23.2 Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number of proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

24. POLL VOTES

24.1 Subject to the Act, a poll may be demanded:

24.1.1 by the chair of the meeting; or

24.1.2 by at least two Voting Members having the right to vote at the meeting;

and a demand by a person as proxy for a Voting Member shall be the same as a demand by a Voting Member.

24.2 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chair of the meeting and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.

25. PROXIES

25.1 Any Voting Member entitled to attend a general meeting shall be entitled to appoint another person (whether a Voting Member or not) as their proxy to attend instead of them and any proxy so appointed shall have the same right as the Voting Member to speak and to vote at the meeting.

25.2 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing executed by or on behalf of the appointor and shall be in such form as the Board may approve from time to time.

25.3 The instrument appointing a proxy and any authority under which it is executed or a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Board Directors may:
25.3.1 be deposited at the Company’s registered office specified in the notice convening the general meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting not less than twenty-four hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or

25.3.2 in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight hours after it is demanded, be deposited as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

25.3.3 where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the Chair or to any Board Director; and an instrument of proxy which is not deposited or delivered in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

26. WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

26.1 A written resolution approved by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of eligible Voting Members (provided that those Voting Members would constitute a quorum at a general meeting) is as valid as if it had been passed at a general meeting provided that:

26.1.1 a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible Voting Member;

26.1.2 a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of Voting Members have signified their agreement to the resolution; and 26.1.3 such agreement is contained in an authenticated document that has been received at the Company’s registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

26.2 A resolution under this article 26 may consist of several documents in similar form each approved by one or more Voting Members.

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

27. MEANS OF COMMUNICATION TO BE USED

27.1 The Company may give notice to any member or Board Director either:

27.1.1 personally; or
27.1.2 by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member or Board Director at his or her registered address or by leaving it at that address; or

27.1.3 by suitable electronic means.

27.2 A member or Board Director present, either in person or by proxy, at any Board meeting of the members shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

27.3 Any notice given in accordance with these Articles is to be treated for all purposes as having been received:

27.3.1 24 hours after being sent by electronic means or delivered by hand to the relevant address; or

27.3.2 48 hours after being sent by first class post to that address; or

27.3.3 on being handed to the member or Board Director personally; or 27.3.4 as soon as the member or Board Director acknowledges actual receipt.

28. RECORDS, ACCOUNTS AND RETURNS

28.1 The Company shall comply with the provisions of the Act and any other statutory requirements or any other regulatory body to which the Company shall be subject, in respect of:

28.1.1 the keeping and auditing of accounting records;

28.1.2 the provision of accounts and annual reports of the Board Directors; and 28.1.3 in making an annual return or similar.

29. RULES

The Board Directors may establish rules governing matters relating to Company administration that are required from time to time for the effective operation of the Company (for example, the provisions relating to classes of Voting Members, Membership, Membership fees and subscriptions and the admission criteria for Voting Members and Membership). If there is a conflict between the terms of these Articles and any rules established under this article, the terms of these Articles shall prevail.

30. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

30.1 Subject to article 30.2, but without prejudice to any indemnity to which a relevant officer is otherwise entitled:
30.1.1 each relevant officer shall be indemnified out of the Company's assets against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by him as a relevant officer in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of his duties, or in relation to them including any liability incurred by him in defending any civil or criminal proceedings, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or the proceedings are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty on his part or in connection with any application in which the court grants him, in his capacity as a relevant officer, relief from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company's affairs; and

30.1.2 the Company may provide any relevant officer with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in connection with any proceedings or application referred to in article 30.1.1 and otherwise may take any action to enable any such relevant officer to avoid incurring such expenditure.

30.2 This article does not authorise any indemnity to the extent that such indemnity would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Act or by any other provision of law and any such indemnity is limited accordingly.

30.3 The Board Directors may decide to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the Company, for the benefit of any relevant officer in respect of any relevant loss.

30.4 In this article:

30.4.1 a relevant loss means any loss or liability which has been or may be incurred by a relevant officer in connection with that relevant officer's duties or powers in relation to the Company; and

30.4.2 a relevant officer means any Board Director or other officer or employees of the Company, committee or taskforce members and all others acting on behalf of the Company whether paid or unpaid but excluding in each case any person engaged by the Company as auditor (whether or not he is also a Board Director or other officer), to the extent he acts in his capacity as auditor.
